№ 461.

By the Mail Yesterday from France, there came the following Particulars concerning the Escape of Baron Theodore from Corsica, viz.

HE was accompanied, as has been already said, by the Advocate Costa, by Durazzo Fostani, and Citrarani Logsi, two Voluntier Turks who went over with him to that Island from Tunis, by three other Fugitives from the Genoese Gallies, by one Francis del Agata, a Flo-rentine, and by Gregon Altiman of Leghorn. He set out the 23d of October O. S. from Sarsena, travelled thro' By-Ways to the other Side of the Mountains, and embark'd with his Companions on board a Pink with French Colours, commanded by a Native of Provence, which brought them on the 28th to Leghorn, where Theodore, in the Disguise of a Fryar, went ashore to the Captain's House, and next Day set out in a Post Chaise, with Costa, on the Road that led to Florence, leaving the rest of his Companions behind him at Leghorn, where the Master of the Vessel was put under an Arrest. 'Tis said, that Theodore had three Portmanteaus with him, in which there were Cloaths and Papers, and that he was obliged to sell some of his Things to raise Money.

This Mail brings Letters from Genoa of the 24th N.S. with Advice from Bastia, dated the 10th of November, that the Corsicans had resolved, in a General Meeting, to defend themselves to the last Extremity, as never to yield Obedience to the Republick of Genoa.

They write from Paris, that last Saturday se'nnight 24 Waggon Loads of Furniture for the King of Poland, were sent off from Meudon for Luneville, and that next Day the Led Horses for his Polish Majesty's Service, took the same Route.——And on the Tuesday following, his said Majesty's Equipage was likewise sent off for Luneville, in which among others are two sumptuous Coaches.

The Count de Belliste is expected at Paris from Metz, having been at Triers to carry Orders for the French Troops to evacuate those Parts.

The Dauphin of France is to be baptised next Month, and is to have for his Godfather the Pope, who is to be represented at the Font by the Cardinal de Fleury. The two eldest Princesses are also to be baptised, and the King and Queen of Poland are to be their Sureties.

They write from Rome, that the Ambassador of France has had a long and secret Conference with the Chevalier de St. George.

A Ship is lately arrived at Hamburgh belonging to Ottenburg, laden with East India Goods to the Value of a Million of Crowns, which lost all her Anchors and Cables upon the Indian Coast.

The Letters from Vienna say, the Persian Ambassador, when he took his Audience of Leave of the Grand Signior, had a Present made to him of 20,000 Aspers (which amounts to 415 Florins of Brabant Money) besides 500 Slaves of his own Country; of which last Present he made no great Account, because he is obliged to carry them Home, as well as no more, at his own Expence.

They write from Petersburg, that the Russian Court foreseeing that the Persian Sophi Kouli Kan will endeavour to cultivate a good Correspondence and Harmony with the Porte, in order to establish himself upon the Throne, and that he will infallibly, by the Assistance of the Grand Signior, claim the Restitution of the Places conquer'd by the Czar Peter, has order'd the Stadtholder at Derbent to keep a good Guard with the Troops now under his Command, amounting to 30,000 Men, besides the Tartars and Georgians, who are able to bring the same Number into the Field, in order to made Head against the Enemy, till other Succours arrive.

The Letters from Vienna add, that the Imperial Court had received an Express from Constantinople, with a Letter from the Grand Signior to the Emperor, in which he desires his Imperial Majesty to declare which Side he will take, if a War should be unavoidable between the Porte and Russia: To which his Imperial Majesty returned for Answer, 'That 'tis his ardent Desire that the Negotiation for 'a Peace between the Grand Signior and the Court 'of Russia, may have the wish'd-for Effect. That 'in order to prevent a bloody War, his Imperial 'Majesty offer'd his Highness his Mediation for re-'conciling the different Pretensions of the Two 'Powers. That if his good Offices had not the 'Success he expected, and a War must be kindled 'between the Parties concerned, it was not possible 'for his Imperial Majesty to refuse the Czarina the 'Succours which he is indispensably obliged to fur-'nish by virtue of their mutual Agreements. That 'as the Events of War are uncertain, his Imperial 'Majesty would be under a Necessity of assisting so 'good and faithful an Ally as the Czarina with even 'greater Succours, if the Case should require it; 'and that upon these Considerations, his Imperial 'Majesty was apprehensive many unforeseen Ac-'cidents might fall out to disturb the Peace subsisting 'with the Porte, by virtue of the Treaty of Passa-'rowitz'

'Tis much fear'd that a Reconciliation between those two Powers is farther off than ever, since the Turk absolutely refuses to agree that the Russians shall keep Asoph, or enjoy a Right of Navigation upon the Black Sea; and on the hand, the Honour of Russia is concerned to preserve a Conquest which cost them so much Blood and Treasure.

When the Imperial Ambassador had his Audience of the Kaimacan on the 7th of October, O. S. he was attended as follows. 1. The Hassa Bachi and the Sub-Bachi, at the Head of a Company of Janizaries. 2. Forty-two Chiaoux in Turbans of Ceremony. 3. Two Imperial Messengers. 4. The Ambassador's Equerry followed by eight led Horses. 5. Thirty of his Clohardes and two Trumpeters. 6. His Steward of the Houshold. 7. Twelve Footmen in their new Livery. 8. The two Chiaoux appointed by the Porte to wait on the Minister. 9. The Officers of his Houshold and four Pages. 10. A Guard of Eighty Janizaries and their Officers whom his Highness sent to the Ambassador. 11. The Captain of the Guard with a Vizier Aga. 12. Two Chaplains. 13. The eight young Students who are kept at Constantinople at the Emperor's Expence to learn the Oriental Languages. 14. Two Chaussars. 15. The Imperial Interpreter and two Turks on Foot. 16. The Kiaja Bachi and fifteen Chiohardumes, walking on Foot by the Side of his Horse. 17. The Imperial Ambassador Leopold Baron de Dahlman on Horseback, supported by two Heydukes and two Gentlemen Porters. 18. His Excellency's Secretary of Languages and the Imperial Secretary at War, attended each by a Couple of Domesticks. 19. The Administrator of the Eastern Company at Vienna with a German Jeweller. 20. The rest of the Nation on Horseback, Two and Two.

They write from Stockholm, that upon the Discovery of some Misdemeanors committed in the Bank and the other publick Funds, the King has caused some suspected Persons to be arrested, and at the same time given Orders to the College of the Police, to consider of Ways for preventing the like hereafter.

And from Copenhagen, that his Danish Majesty has nominated three Directors and five Commissioners of his new Bank.

The Affair of the Dutchies of Juliers and Bergues, is the Subject of frequent Conferences at the Imperial and other Courts; the present Point of Dispute being, whether the Troops which are to be quartered there till the different Pretensions are accommodated, shall be only French Troops, or mix'd with Imperial, or of any other Nation?

A Gold Medal Value 25 Ducats, and a Silver one valued at one Ducat, struck both upon the Institution of the Academy at Gottingen, are handed about at Hanover, which have on one Side Minerva, with an Angel over her holding a Crown of Laurel, and the City of Gottingen in Perspective, with these Words upon Top, In publica commoda, and underneath, Academia, Georgia Augusta Gottinga fondata, 1734; and on the Reverse, the King's Bust with his Name and Titles round it, to eternize the Memory of the illustrious Founder of that University.

The Malteze Men of War lately took and carried into Malaga two Algerine Rovers, one of which was the famous Reis Schinlaeh, the most cruel and desperate of all those Pyrates, who two Years ago took a Dutch Ship commanded by Captain Maroon, and treated the whole Crew with the utmost Inhumanity. The other Rover was a Renegade Christian, and the Admiral of Algiers. On board of the one there was 137 Turks, and 25 Christian Slaves; and in the other were 184 Turks, and 31 Christian Slaves, who together with the other 25, were all set at Liberty.

The French Court is so incensed at the late Quarrel between the Inhabitants of Hunningen and Basil, that they have not only forbid their Subjects in Alsace to hold any Correspondence with those of Basil, but have also ordered all the People of that Canton in Alsace, to be arrested.

The Weather was so bad between Bentheim and Utrecht, that his Majesty was oblig'd to change Horses four Times; and about 10 of the Hanoverian Dragoons were left behind, some of them having had the Misfortune to fall into the Mud, and others being obliged to help two Chaises of the King's Retinue, one of which was overturn'd, and the other had one of the Wheels broke. The Marquis de la Forest accompanied his Majesty to Helvoetsluys, where his Royal Highness the Prince of Orange attended his Majesty, and was to continue there till the Wind served for his Majesty's Departure for England. On Saturday and Sunday last his Majesty sent Expresses to the Hague to enquire after the Welfare of her Royal Highness the Princess of Orange. His Excellency Horatio Walpole, with M. Bentinck, one of the Members of the States of Holland, and two Deputies more, waited on his Majesty on Friday last, when his Excellency Mr. Walpole made the Report of his Negotiations at the Hague, to which Place he was to return on Sunday last; so that it is not certain whether he is to come over with his Majesty. M. Bentinck and the two Deputies, were introduced on Saturday last to his Majesty at the Admiralty House, by the Marquis de la Forest, and complimented him on his Arrival in Holland.

The Wind having been Easterly here the greatest Part of Wednesday last, the News of his Majesty's Landing was expected all Day Yesterday; but her Majesty had received no Advice of it last Night at Seven o'Clock.

Au defaut de la Force, il faut employer la Ruse,
Motto to LAYER's Scheme.

Advertisement concerning this Book.

This Masterpiece of religious Policy was published, many Years since, in Latin, French, and Dutch: Mr. John Schipper, a Bookseller at Amsterdam, bought one of them at Antwerp, among other Books, and afterwards reprinted it. The Jesuits, being informed that he had purchased this Book, demanded it back from him; but he had then sent it to Holland. One of the Society, who lived at Amsterdam, hearing it said, soon after, to a Catholick Bookseller, by Name Van Eyke, that Schipper was printing a Book which concerned the Jesuits; replied, that if it was only The Rules of the Society, he should not be under any Concern; but desired he would inform himself what it was. Being told by the Bookseller, that it was The Secret Instructions of the Society, the good Father, shrugging up his Shoulders, and knitting his Brow, said, that he saw no other Remedy but denying that this Piece came from the Society. The Reverend Fathers howe ver thought it more advisable to purchase the whole Edition, which they soon after did, some few Copies excepted; from one of these it was afterwards reprinted, with this Account prefixed; which is there said to be taken from two Roman Catholicks, Men of Credit.
